(c) whether even though students who scored 100 percent marks are not getting admission in Delhi University and if so, the details thereof;
(d) whether the Government has any proposal for fixing marks for cut-off or reviewing the present system; and
(e) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

Answer

MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
(SMT. SMRITI ZUBIN IRANI)

(a) & (b): The Central Universities are autonomous institutions governed under the provisions of their Act, Statutes and Ordinances framed there-under. The statutory bodies of the Central Universities are competent to lay down the general principles and minimum eligibility criteria for admission to various courses for each academic session.
(c): The cut-off marks for admission into educational institutions vary from institution to institution and course to course. Those students, who get less than the required cut-off-marks, may not get admission in the preferred course offered by an institution of their choice, and therefore, may take admission in another course or another institution.
(d) & (e): Madam, no such decision has been taken in this regard.
